André Walker African-American Hair

Walker is Chicago's reigning African-American hair specialist by virtue of one client: Oprah Winfrey. He's usually at her studio in the morning, but in the afternoon you'll find him at the Marianne Strokirk salon. How does Oprah's hair stay so full and glossy under the bright lights? Walker insists on conditioning treatments and any necessary chemical processes—like relaxing or reverse perms—as an integral part of anyone's appointment. Price: Initial visit, $200 (including consultation, basic chemical work, and cut); $80 thereafter. Address: 361 West Chestnut St. Phone: 312-944-4428.
