Short, with longer layers in front and shorter layers in the back. It's her look in There's Something About Mary —minus the, uh, hair gel	Marianne Strokirk Salon in Chicago, 312-640-0101	People called you chipmunk cheeks as a child (this cut gives the illusion of a narrower face).	You already have a long, narrow face—this cut is like a haunted house mirror: it stretches you out.	15 minutes	Blow-dry straight using a natural-bristle brush. Once hair is dry, rub a dollop of pomade (try Redken Water Wax, $13, 800-733-5368) into palms and massage through hair to separate layers.
